

Who Are We?

The Nubian Jak Edutainment Academy is a unique venture which uses education and entertainment to develop and raise awareness of Black Minority Ethnic (BME) history and achievement among students, teachers, carers, social workers and youth workers.

The academy was inspired and founded by former social worker turned media personality, Jak Bubeula-Dodd. The Nubian Jak concept also includes the award-winning board-game 'Nubian Jak' with replaceable card sets as well as a book series. Described by the educational magnate Time-Life as "A very innovative concept", Nubian Jak has also been referred to by Inspired Magazine as "a world first" by The Voice newspaper group as "wonderfully educational" and by The Independent as "an educational, non political medium that can change people's views". TV features include BBC News South East, B.E.T. (USA) as well as on Radio i.e. GLR, Choice FM, Radio Scotland, BBC Southern Counties, the World Service, and WLIB (NY).

We offer programmes of educational workshops and training suitable for young people of all cultural backgrounds, and personal advisors.

Our programs aim to entertain while informing and incorporating a dynamic mix of: Life coaching, Education, Training, Consultancy and Case management

- Motivational Workshops (interactive)
- Multi-Media Presentations
- Game-shows
- Board-games
- Drama (including role play)
- Video
- Music

How to contact us

Nubian Jak Education Academy

Nubian Jak Limited, 122-126 High Road, London NW6 4HY

Tel: 0800 093 0400 Fax: 0207 692 4881 Email: info@nubianjak.com

The Nubian Jak Education Academy is a product of Nubian Jak Ltd

Company Registration No. 05090792

deanscreative: 07759 677546

Learning Cultural Diversity through Edutainment

Offering The Most Progressive Multicultural Education Programme To Support Students, Teachers and Carers

Nubian Jak Education Academy

Your Ideal Partner

The Nubian Jak Edutainment Academy is the ideal partner for:

- schools
- teachers
- pupil referral units
- young offender institutions
- social workers
- probation officers
- youth clubs
- youth workers

In our multicultural society the National Curriculum alone cannot reflect our rich BME history. The Nubian Jak Edutainment Academy will partner you in filling cultural gaps in educational resources and thereby promote:

- development, delivery and evaluation
- social inclusion
- cultural diversity
- building confidence and self-esteem
- greater achievement
- controlled and productive behaviour
- life skills
- study skills
- effective communication

OUR TEAM OF PRESENTERS

Our workshops are presented by a team of experienced and professional arts and educational facilitators.

Selecting Workshop Programs

- Workshops range from a one-hour session, to a program of several weeks.
- Keeping it R.E.A.L (Employment, Education and Training)
- Nuff Respect (BME Youth and Self Esteem)
- Dream Team (Citizenship/Industry)
- B.L.I.N.G. Culture (Behaviour Link to Negative Gang/Gun Culture)
- Edubingo (Making BME history more accessible)
- Hold it Down (Working with and Managing Complex Behaviour)
- It Wasn't Me (HIV/AIDS and family planning, taking responsibility)
- Low down on Highs (Drugs and its negative effect on youth culture)
- Keys to the B.I.M (Blaxploitation In Media-examining stereotypes)
- Legal Eagles (Increasing young peoples understanding of the law and their legal rights/status)
- Believe the Hype (Improving study skills and making the most of school)
- Who Knows Jak? (Multicultural Educational Game show)
- Stay Cool, Look Cool (BME Youth and Anger Management)

Workshops can be used for supplementing course work, including teacher or carer training.

Workshops are flexible and tailor-made around the individual needs of those participating

Workshops can take place on your premises, or at our training centre:

85-87 Bayham Street, Camden, London NW1 0AG

"Workshops are flexible and tailor-made around the individual needs of those participating"

Your Success

The Nubian Jak Edutainment Academy has successfully partnered a number of institutions, including:

- Central London Connexions
- Hackney Youth Service
- A number of schools including: The Green School Walthamstow (No.1 'Value Added' state school in London and Evening Standard school of the year 2004).
- National Association for the Care and Resettlement of Offenders
- Stonham Housing Association
- Hertfordshire Saturday Schools Association
- Diane Abbott MP's 'London Schools and the Black Child Conference'
- PROUD Network (Within the Department of Constitutional Affairs)
- The Nubian Jak Edutainment Academy is ready to share this success with new partners and we invite you to contact us.

Back 2 Basics Southern Challenge

Unique, challenging, self-empowering, skills training in rural Ghana, Sub-Saharan Africa

Ideal for young people working on raising self-esteem and breaking negative cycles

Join the Nubian Jak Edutainment Academy and work with local people and rural development projects in Ghana:

- Tree planting
- Teaching basic literacy in schools
- Meeting local business people and industry heads
- Farming in a village
- Working with craftsmen
- African drumming and dancing

N.B: SMALL GROUPS ONLY, SUITABLE FOR 17-25 YEAR OLDS, FULL INDUCTION GIVEN. (CONTACT US FOR MORE DETAILS AND BROCHURE)